About this property

Vaneau Lecobel is pleased to present this elegant residential development in Etterbeek, ideally located within walking distance of the European Quarter and the renowned Place Jourdan. This distinctive project combines architectural heritage, contemporary design and modern living comfort. The development comprises 30 apartments, ranging from studios to 4-bedroom units, with surface areas from approximately 54 sqm to 234 sqm. Designed with respect for the existing heritage, selected original façades and structures have been preserved, giving the project a unique character. The apartments offer generous living spaces, abundant natural light and high-quality finishes. Particular attention has been paid to sustainability, featuring excellent energy performance, premium materials and landscaped green areas within the inner courtyard. Located in one of Brussels's most sought-after neighbourhoods, close to shops, restaurants, public transport and Leopold Park, the project enjoys an exceptional living environment. Whether for owner-occupation or investment purposes, this development represents a rare opportunity in Brussels. Completion is scheduled for the end of 2027.
