About this property

Vaneau Lecobel presents a retail space of approximately 737 m² in Etterbeek. Ideally situated in the heart of Etterbeek, in the immediate vicinity of the European Quarter, Place Jourdan and a particularly vibrant shopping district, this retail space of approximately 737 m² benefits from a strategic location offering excellent visibility. Developed as part of a high-quality property project combining architectural heritage with modernity, this retail space will appeal to brands seeking an attractive location in one of Brussels's most sought-after neighbourhoods. With its beautiful façade, natural light and generous proportions, it offers the ideal setting for a retail business, a showroom, a service centre or an innovative concept. Its location within a lively and sought-after neighbourhood means it benefits from a constant flow of residents, European institution workers and visitors frequenting the area's many shops, restaurants and social venues. The project also places particular emphasis on
